Speaker: Y.S. Tsai, General Manager, Fullchamp Technologies Co. Ltd - In a company like Fullchamp, human capital is the largest asset. We aim to transform our staff from having local skillsets into global ones, so we can become a global company. When a company is in transition to globalization, it needs language skills to connect and communicate with the world. So we made a huge effort to plan for this. We have dreams, executive abilities, and opportunities. Therefore, we have to look beyond the present world, and step into the future.

Speaker: T.J. Shao, Chairman, Chun Shin LTD, Country Master Distributor for ETS in Taiwan - If a company wants to become internationalized, English communication is a basic requirement. The TOEIC test is a very practical tool for corporations. It can help companies to fairly, effectively and quickly select the required talent. At the same time, it can be used internally to manage employees' English proficiency. Improved English proficiency equals increased corporate competitiveness. Around 7 million people take the TOEIC test worldwide each year. The TOEIC test is used in over 150 countries. Nearly 14,000 companies, government agencies and English Language Learning programs adopt TOEIC scores. Connect the world. Connect your dream.
