

The Redesigned TOEIC Bridge® Tests

from ETS

Discover a better way to measure foundational English proficiency using our four-skills assessment.

Evaluate basic to intermediate listening, reading, speaking and writing skills used in everyday life.

In today's interconnected world, a solid foundation of English-language skills can open opportunities. The TOEIC Bridge® tests have been redesigned to provide an objective and effective tool to understand an individual's basic- to intermediate-level English proficiency—with the same trusted quality and reliability that make the TOEIC® tests the global standard for measuring English proficiency in the workplace.

The TOEIC Bridge suite of assessments measures developing skills in listening, reading, speaking and writing, enabling test takers to fully demonstrate their ability to communicate in day-to-day situations. Individual skills can be combined into complementary test modules, offering flexibility, efficiency and convenience to meet your specific needs.

Make informed decisions and support learning.

The redesigned TOEIC Bridge tests focus on communication tasks in everyday life and common workplace scenarios that reflect modern language uses and communication methods. Aligned with recognized international language-learning frameworks including CEFR and CLB*, they provide a useful and reliable way to measure and compare individuals' basic to intermediate English communication skills, so you can confidently:

- Make screening and placement decisions
- Meet English-language program entrance and exit requirements
- Monitor learning progress
- Develop individuals on the path to advanced English proficiency

Reading	15–50	19	34	45
Speaking	15–50	23	37	43

Interpreting Results

Employers, institutions, English programs and learners can interpret the recommended minimum scores on the redesigned TOEIC Bridge tests by referring to the global descriptors and other tables in the CEFR. The results represent the recommendations of informed experts using recognized standard-setting approaches. However, they should be considered guidelines, as ETS does not recommend the use of rigid cut scores.
